Internship Opportunity 2019

The British Office in Taipei is part of a worldwide network of 230 UK Government offices, representing British interests overseas. There is an internship opportunity in Communications and Marketing Section for those students who wish to broaden skills and experience in the real-world environment.

The Communications and Marketing Section engages with all sections at the British Office to provide integrated and strategic communication and marketing through a combination of media work, innovative campaigns and digital/social media communication. You will be given the opportunity to contribute significantly towards how we raise the profile of the UK in Taiwan through events, seminars and campaigns etc.

Main duties and responsibilities:

- Media work support - news coverage collection and media publicity evaluation
- Social media work support - content research & content production
- Translation
- Event/campaign preparation and onsite support
- Administration support – data entries and branded assets management

Minimum qualification:

- Undergraduate students or postgraduate students majoring in communications, marketing, business, international relations, international trade or English language.
- Strong IT computer skills using Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Office, Internet and MS Project.
- Skill on Adobe Premier/video & audio editing/photoshop is preferred.
- Excellent spoken and written English and Chinese
- Active social media users
- Photography/filming skill will be a plus.
- Enthusiastic and a self-starter. Ideally available to come in to the office at least 2 full days a week.

This internship term is at least 6 months starting in March/April 2019. Subsidised transportation fee of NT$200 will be granted per working day.

How to apply:

Applicants should detail any relevant experience, skill and tools they have worked with that would be useful for the role set out to the job description above.
